Baby
No, it's not that I don't care
Maybe
It's a change in atmosphere

And I've seen the signs, I know
That it's right for me to go
I'm on my way

So when you think of yesterday
Remember all the things we said
And through the course of history
I hope you still remember me
And there can be no other way
There's nothing left for us to say
I've got to see it through alone
I've got to do this
On my own

Baby
You could say that it's unfair
Maybe
I've got nothing left to share

And I've seen the signs, I know
That it's right for me to go
I'm on my way

So when you think of yesterday
Remember all the things we said
And through the course of history
I hope you still remember me
And there can be no other way
There's nothing left for us to say
I've got to see it through alone
I've got to do this
On my own
