"Scars of a Choice"

Visit "Scars of a Choice" on MotoLyrics.com

Can't avoid your own decision
Surround your soul perpetual wounds
No escape now you realize
Trapped into life condemned to choose

Guilt and nonsense always whipping
Then you must bear once you are born
Obligate to decide
And taste the pain from it results

Fatality can't you complain
Hesitate! best way for the pain

CHORUS:

Scars of a choice - it never heals
That fatal moment ought to decide
Fortune and fate walking side by side
On your own, on your own choice (whichever)
Since we are born till the day we die

Be aware! You have no choice
Liars and deceivers try to deny
No hope no way for the weakness and pessimism
Just face you wounds, the scars of your choice

CHORUS AGAIN
