

Chainsaw "Destroying The Madness"

Visit "Destroying The Madness" on MotoLyrics.com

I don't know where the sounds come from
I don't know how they become feelings
With my crying soul and broken heart
With a finger on a string move the darkness around

Destroying madness, breaking free
I'm no longer bound
Path I was looking for
Has already been found

I live 'cause unlike the others I don't lie
I don't care who can hear it but I'm not on the run
Somewhere in the air you can hear my cry
The sound and I are one - pure and strong

I turn love into trembling air
Destroying madness, breaking free
I'm no longer bound
Path I was looking for
Has already been found
