Intro: You found yours and I lost my way,
My love for you will never fade away.

Verse: It's you girl that stole my heart,
I am the accused who now stands alone!
You robbed my soul and tore it apart,
My twisted shadow lies tattered and torn!

Chorus: In finding you,
I found myself dancing in the rain!
And in losing you,
Find myself losing myself again!

Verse: You gave me wings and taught me to fly,
But why cut them all and make me cry?
I waited for new wings to grow again,
But you vanished, you f-l-e-w away!

Chorus: In finding you,
I found myself prancing in the rain!
And in losing you,
Find myself losing myself again!

Bridge: Even if I don't walk another shore,
I'll come in search of my heart with you.
And if none will help in carrying me to you,
I'll slowly crawl my way to your door.

Chorus: In finding you,
I found myself dancing in the rain!
And in losing you,
I've lost myself; I'm standing in the rain!
