I follow you, I'll stay right by your side
I follow you, I'll stay right by your side
I follow you, I'll stay right by your side
I follow you, I'll stay right by your side
Love is when you meet someone who tells you something about you
Love is when my heart is beating and is running after you
I hear voices and they tell me without you I'm incomplete
If you hear me I'll be waiting on your street
And finally I found my love tonight
Finally I found my way back home
Stop looking, searching, for a better life
We are painting perfect love
And finally I found my love tonight
Finally I found my way back home
Stop looking, searching, for a better life
We are painting perfect love
I follow you, I'll stay right by your side
I follow you, I'll stay right by your side
I follow you, I'll stay right by your side
I follow you, I'll stay right by your side
Love is when you meet someone who tells you something about you
Love is when my heart is beating and is running after you
I hear voices and they tell me without you I'm incomplete
If you hear me I'll be waiting on your street
And finally I found my love tonight
Finally I found my way back home
Stop looking, searching, for a better life
We are painting perfect love
Finally I found my love tonight
Finally I found my way back home
Stop looking, searching, for a better life
We are painting perfect love
I follow you, I'll stay right by your side
I follow you, I'll stay right by your side
I follow you, I'll stay right by your side
I follow you, I'll stay right by your side
