Storm rages
Trapped and caged
In light from the dying day
We'll crawl in the dead of the night
Breaking' out with our hands
Whatever, whenever we go
Whatever it all ends undone
Whatever, whenever we go
Whatever it all will go on
Ever live it all again
If we could be the same again
Then you and I would fall again
Never live it all again
Turn to me
Blessed and breathing
Cry for the sun to rise again
Now tomorrow it won't come
Wear it off, let it go
Whatever, whenever we go....etc
(we know where we go, where we go.....)
