[INTRO]

Excuse me

Due to the fact you spend sleepless nights in the company of no one

Holding on to a pillow, waiting for a phone call from your man

Saying he'll be late again

The question is:

Is he out there working to make himself a better brother?

[Yo-Yo]

Ah-ah, I tell you what it is:

Girl, you're gettin played like a sucker!

(Don't be)

This is for the men who like to dog women

And this is for the women who like to get dogged by men

And this is for Ice Cube and Jinx

Because those brothers know they some dogs

Ha!

Here's a message to the ladies

Married, single and even the ones with babies

Listen to YoYo once again

As I conversate about ways of men

In your life, girl, keep an open mind

And you'll find a lie in each and every line

They say, "Hah, sure we're from the new school"

What I'm tryin to say is, girl, don't be no fool

(Don't be)

(Don't be) [x3]

(Stand up and fight

For your rights)

Girl, you're gettin played like a sucker

I know it's none of my business

But what the hell is this?
Lettin a guy get the best of you?
But here we go, YoYo is to the rescue
Cause you see, I'm more than a softie
I'm here to open your eyes, so you can smell the coffee
Guys ain't nothin but dirt
And they'll flirt with anything dressed in a mini-skirt
You know your man's cheatin while you're sleepin
He's leavin your side to start creepin
But you pretend like you don't see the man
I heard love is blind - but damn...
You can read it in brailles and still tell without a bright light
That somethin ain't right
You kow that he's sleepin with this girl and that girl
I even saw your man with a fat girl
But you know, two can play at that game
He's got another on the side, do the same
Bein in love is cool (true)
But I'ma tell you like this: girl, don't be no fool

(Don't be)
(Don't be) [x3]

(Stand up and fight
For your rights)

Hey Denise, girl, how you doin, how you - wait
Wait a minute -
Homegirl, what's up with the black eye?
(Ehm - I fell) Hah, now that's a damn lie
The man you got is just bad for your health
You can lie to me, but not to yourself
So when you gonna leave him?
(But he says that he loves me) Hah, and you believe him?
(Yeah) And then you let him sock you? (hm-hm)
And after he says I'm sorry you let him knock you?
Get rid of that sucker, girl, pick a winner
Instead of gettin beat by a chicken dinner
You ain't supposed to be hit (you're right)
And any man that hits a girl ain't shit
I'm tryin to tell you, but I thought you knew it
Cause right about now you're goin stupid for cupid
But cupid ain't the ones gettin knocked around Socked around by a low-down clown from uptown
So what you're gonna do to the creep?
If I was you, I would wait until he fall asleep
And I'd show him what time it is Tie him down and his behind is mine
Show him he can get beat before you beat it

Tell him to treat you the way you wanna be treated
If that don't work, break out of your door
But don't certainly let him hit you, girl, don't be no fool (Yeah, the IBWC is like in here!

But YoYo got somethin else to say)

Nowadays I guess men just think they can take advantage of a woman
But that's when you have to come in and show the man
If he can't get none of you
You're just a woman just like he a man

Here's a message to the ladies
Married, single and even the ones with babies
Listen to YoYo once again
As I conversate about ways of men
In your life, girl, keep an open mind
And you'll find a lie in each and every line
They say, "Hah, sure we're from the new school"
What I'm tryin to say is, girl, don't be no fool

(Don't be)
(Don't be) [x3]
Don't be no fool

(Don't be)
(Don't be) [x3]
Girl... don't be no fool

Brother, you have to protect and respect the black woman
(On a serious tip)

(Everybody plays the fool)
