

Peggy Lee

"There Won't Be A Shortage Of Love"

Visit "There Won't Be A Shortage Of Love" on MotoLyrics.com

Oh, there maybe a shortage of sugar, of aluminum pots and such

But there won't be a shortage of love when we love each other so much

But if they have to ration out rubber, we were getting from the Dutch

Ooh, there won't be a shortage of love when we love
each other so much

Let the taxes rise, we'll economize and cut our budget in two

We can trade the car in for a horse or a bicycle built for two

We can still have a portion of moonlight, another helping of stars and such

So there won't be a shortage of love when we love each other so much

Visit Peggy Lee page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.