Peggy Lee's wistful 'Waitin' For The Train To Come In'

Which touched a responsive chord in many American women

Waiting like Peggy for their guys to come home

Waitin' for the train to come in

Waitin' for my man to come home

I've counted every minute of each live long day

Been so melancholy since he went away

I've shed a million teardrops or more

Waitin' for the one I adore

I'm waitin' in the depot by the railroad track

Lookin' for the choo, choo train that brings him back

I'm waitin' for my life to begin

Waitin' for the train to come in

I'm waitin' in the depot by the railroad track

Lookin' for the choo, choo train that brings him back

I'm waitin' for my life to begin

Waitin', waitin', I'm waitin' for the train to come in
