Here's a little story about you and me
We listened to Charlie and smoked us some weed
You was just a riddle, a mystery
You acted a fool, but you's older than me
You know I got money, so there ain't no scheme
You make me want your honey like the birds and the bees
We were not impulsive, we thought it through
We followed our hearts, cause it's all that we knew
No one has to know...

I don't wanna wait for you tonight
I'm feeling so alive
You get me so high
And I make you feel alright
I could be the best time of your life
Ain't gotta tell a soul
I could be the best time of your life
You'd never let me go...

I ain't no magician
The trick that you see is the unusual decision
To wear my heart on my sleeve
Honeymoon lovers, we don't need sleep
From the moment you wake up, you're a rockstar to me
Ain't no beginner, but I feel like I'm three
Call me a sinner, but it's heaven to me
No one has to know...

I don't wanna wait for you tonight
I'm feeling so alive
You get me so high
And I make you feel alright
I could be the best time of your life
Ain't gotta tell a soul
I could be the best time of your life
You'd never let me go...
