Though hope is low, I'ma glow when you smile at me
Life is simple as A, B, C
Not a thought in my head
Not a care in the world

Though skies are gray, I'm as gay as a Disney cartoon
Not a wrinkle upon my brow
Not a thought in my head
Not a care in the world

I feel the same like the Ol' Queen of Russia
Like Kate DeGray used to state long ago
[Incomprehensible] so if I move in the group with a
Getty tribe
I'm just frightened because I've got not a bean in my pot
Not a care in the world
