Walls are thin and caving in
In an episode
While this was the one where I'd be gone
See that we are alone
Nothings familiar nothings real
I tried but I'm not from here
Couldn't point you where to go
As if I really knew myself
So I sleep with diphenhydromine
Diphenhydromine!

And episode three was you and me
Standing in the middle of some street
Of some ghost town that we both found
Telling each other to leave
Nothings familiar nothings real
I tried but I'm not here
Couldn't point you where to go
As if I really knew myself
So I sleep with diphenhydromine
Diphenhydromine!

~Aint it something
That gets old
~Aint it something
That gets old
~Aint it something
