Manipulation doesn't shape me,
And I am just feeling the part took out.
And even though this curse restrains me,
I got so many things to yell about.

Well I could fight this,
But I may die.
And don't wanna us be the apple in your eye.
Well I could stay here,
Strap on my face.
Listen to the words that put me in my place.

I have seen a transition
And you wondered what I'm gonna do about it.
You thought that my eyes were behind my back
Though that I didn't want to but as you see,

Throw it away!
'Cos I got the patience,
To see that you drown.
To watch you go down.

Throw it away!
'Cos I got the patience,
To see that you drown.
To watch you go down.

I have a reality
I want ?
All I'm starving for I'm believing you

Throw it away!
'Cos I got the patience,
To see that you drown.
To watch you go down.

Throw it away!
'Cos I got the patience,
To see that you drown.
To watch you go down.
