Soaking through
Colors that hold us up against the wall
Soaking through
Colors that hold us up against the wall

Hold your colors against the wall,
When they take everything away,
Hold your colors against the wall

(Twisted the knife and opened your eyes) x 12

Soaking through

Hold your colors against the wall,
When they take everything away,
Hold your colors against the wall

Soaking through

(Twisted the knife and opened your eyes) x 8

Ahhh, she looked into your eyes,
And saw what laid beneath,
Don't try to save yourself,
The circle is complete,
We're reaching out and to tell you,
Nothing else can touch me

Soaking through

Hold your colors against the wall,
When they take everything away,
Hold your colors against the wall
Soaking through

(Twisted the knife and opened your eyes) x 4

Ahhh, she looked into your eyes,
And saw what laid beneath,
Don't try to save yourself,
The circle is complete

(Twisted the knife and opened your eyes) x 8

Fading gently,
Soaking through,
and starting not to show at all
We're reaching out and to take you,
Nothing else can touch me

Soaking through

Hold your colors against the wall,
When they take everything away,
Hold your colors against the wall

Soaking through

Hold your colors against the wall,
When they take everything away,
Hold your colors against the wall
