We go forth and multiply
Nerves are shaking from the decadent light
We go forth and multiply
Nerves are shaking from the decadent light

We'll be a little slow when you're going to die
And when you're getting low we'll raise the tide

We'll be a little slow when you're going to die
We go forth and multiply
Nerves are shaking from the decadent light

We'll be a little slow when you're going to die
And when you're getting low we'll raise the tide

We'll be a little slow when you're going to die
We go forth and multiply
Let's us shake it from the decadent light

We go forth and multiply
We go forth and multiply
We go forth and multiply

We'll be a little slow when you're going to die
And when you're getting low we'll raise the tide

We'll be a little slow when you're going to die
We go forth and multiply
Nerves are shaking from the decadent light
