Hey baby,
Do you know what you do to me?
Did you know
i haven't slept in two damn days.
It's three am
and i just ate a lot more ice cream and i'm watchin rerun shows that i loved when i was eight.
Hey baby
ever since ya sat next to me Ya got me thinkin that i could take on the whole world.
You're the kinda of boy
i'd love to pull close to me.
You're the kind of boy
that could open up this world.
Do you know there are a million lights in Nashville.
If you want to we could watch them all go out.
I'm just wonderin,
do you feel the way that i feel
Or are you someone that i should just forget about.
Hey baby,
do you feel your ears a ringin?
Cause i just can't seem to speak your name enough.

All my friends think that you really must be somethin.
Cause though i've tried so hard, i just can't shut up.
Do you know there are a million lights in Nashville.
And if you want to, we could watch them all go out.
But i'm just wonderin,
do you feel the way that i feel
or are you someone that i should just forget about.
Hey baby,
did you know that i can't shake you.
Did you know i've got a whole plan figured out?
What'd ya say if you and i just run away spend the rest of our lives just sortin this stuff out.
Do you know there are a million lights in Nashville.
if you want to we could watch them all go out.
I'm just wonderin
Do you feel the way i feel

You are someone i just can't forget about Hey baby,
do you know what you do to me?
Did ya know i haven't slept in two damn days.
