Girl, the other day I was walking down the street
And I've received a phone call from my ex
First thing I said was, baby baby you really love me
And then I walked away
On a sunny day, ah, you really love me
Drinking away all my pain
No umbrella, just walking in the rain
And consciously depressed because my life changed
Mind rub my head with oil in Jesus name
Walking in her red bottoms
I asked her who bought those for you
She said Craig got em
Who Craig? That nigga that worked next to your cubical
Always texting you, talking bout you beautiful
She shook her head yes, to me somehow
She still looked like an angel in that red dress
I picture her breaths as wings when she bare chest
I care a lot about her but she can care less
So I bring my gun packing, lack of respect
Prada shoe and thump tappin
On my broken heart, at least cheer me up
When my watch glow in the heart
Baby, babe, you really love me
You when I walked away
Baby, babe, you really love me
You would care if I was okay
Baby, babe, you really love me
You when I walked away
On a sunny day, you really love me

You know I miss the good times that we used to share
When you would sleep all night girl I used to stare
Remember when I had that motorcycle accident
Before I got to the hospital, girl you were there
In Vicky sweats with the paint written on the back
T shirt flick flops with your hair wrapped
I fell in love with you for that
And I fucked up so bad I prolly never get you back
So now I'm speeding, down the highway,
Ivy brothers repeating
Tears dropping, you can say that I'm grieving
Me cheating is not even the reason

Is cause I ain't keep it real with you
I was supposed to build with you
Propose to you on your birthday
House on the hills with you
Instead of running the streets
I should have chilled with you
I never got a clear picture

Baby, babe, you really love me
You wouldn't have walked away, nah
Baby, babe, you really love me
You would care if I was okay
Baby, babe, you really love me
You wouldn't walk away
... the same again, on a sunny day
Baby, babe, you really love me.
