Verse 1

I have given you reasons to doubt me
But you keep your hope held high
I have given you reasons to hate me
But your love will never die

Chorus

I will never be able to see with my eyes in the mirror
Staring straight back at me all this time
I know that I need You

Verse 2

You have given me reasons to trust you
By your side is where I stay
You have given me reasons to love you
Thank you God for saving me

Bridge

It is true that You are truth
I believe it
I was blind, no insight
Now I see it

Chorus X2
