Verse 1

Fire, when will you ever set in
I can feel you on the outside
Tearing away at this cold skin
This desire, starting with a single spark
Can grow and rise, control my life
But will tear my worlds apart

Pre-Chorus

I don't know if I could stand that
So I'll take them both and keep it a secret

Chorus

With one foot in and the other out
I will only find unstable ground
How can crooked paths lead us in straight lines
Never getting to where we wanted to be in life.

Verse 2

I climb to the top of this fence
I'll play it safe, just sit and wait
My entire life if needed.
But if, I would leave this world today
I would scream in pain, cry out your name
But my decision would be too late

Pre-Chorus

And my life without You is worthless
So I'll live it for you and give it a purpose

Bridge

The time spent here, cannot compare
To the time that I'll spend with you
You're the one way out, lord save me now
I will live for only you
