"No Time For You"

Every time I turn around,
You're talking about someone new
And you've got nothing going on Flappin' your lips is all you do
You think that you know everyone,
And they're so in love with you
I think that you are such a bore,
And I've got no time for you.

[Chorus:]

No time for you - No time for you

The bullshit that you spew
It just seeps from your lips
Trying to be seen with the bands,
Like it's some kind of power trip.
No one takes you serious,
A clown is what we think you are
You are such a fucking joke.
But in your mind you are a star..
