So many people longing to be Living their lives regretlessly
Trying to repress the pain in their lives
Reassuring themselves living with lies

No way to break through not on my own
Can't push away all the sorrow I've known
Have to release every thought or care
And take control, life is a dare

I can start over today
Live my life a different way
Can't find a way to erase bad times to make everything
okay
I'll start over and live every single day
Every single day
Every single day, yeah

Regret and memories no remorse no apologies
No reason for me to despair no future at all, ask if I care
I got time on my side twenty four hours in my life
Can't hang on to what's in my past
Full speed ahead hard and fast

I can start over today
Live my life a different way
Can't find a way to erase bad times to make everything
okay
I'll start over and live every single day
Every single day
Every single day, yeah

At the end with each dropping sun
Can't erase what has been done
Who cares what happened long ago
I don't want to know

I can start over today
Live my life a different way
Can't find a way to erase bad times to make everything
okay

I'll start over and live every single day

Can't face tomorrow with these thoughts of yesterday
I can't escape the lies and make them go away
Wish I had the answers to help me make it through Can't shake these images no matter what I do

I guess I'll use them to make me a stronger man I'll use each twisted tortured memory to help me understand
And I will learn from mistakes that everyone make
I got to find a way
I guess I'll have to live with them every single day

Every single day
Every single day
Every single day
