Look at all these people lying around Look at all these people being scraped right off the ground
Because of too many broken homes too many cardboard box
Too many people who just can't survive here losses
well Americans

Don't belong in tins let's learn to help ourselves Before we help the foreign Wounded decay shout out dismay can you hear their voices
Yelling out mayday

We're sending money overseas
Look out your window our nation's the one that needs Because there's not enough income there's too much poverty
Can't you live a life go out to see we'll leave it alone hope it goes away

It's hard to ignore life when you live it everyday
I'd like to see, I'd like to say
I'd like to hear that help is on the way

Here today where tomorrow
Death in the shadows affect us all
Here today where tomorrow
Death in the shadows affect us all

Too many bodies lie in the street
Too many hungry mouths that have the right to feed
Too many bodies lie in the street
Too many hungry mouths that have the right to feed

Okay that's it
Look at all these people lying around
Look at all these people being scraped right off the
Because of too many broken homes too many
cardboard box
Too many people who just can't survive here losses

well Americans

We'll leave it alone hope it goes away
It's hard to ignore life when you live it everyday
I'd like to see, I'd like to say
I'd like to hear, that help is on the way

Here today where tomorrow
Death in the shadows affect us all
Here today where tomorrow
Death in the shadows affect us all
