Life is a lesson you can only learn for free and time
keeps on slippin'
like a faded memory
And I got the answers starin' right in front of me, time
heals my soul
Set me free, set me free, set me free, set me free
I stand about, face my mission, you don't know what you've been missin'

There is a reason for all that comes to be My troubled life riddled with dark insanities
I need solutions through the pain that surrounds me, time heals my soul

I stand about, face my mission, you don't know what
you've been missin'

keeps on slippin'
like a faded memory
And I got the answers starin' right in front of me, time
heals my soul
