Out from the mountain,
To reach the ocean
I need no reason,
Only the motion
Flow into nowhere
And wash away the lies

I've no fear of losing
What you see is not mine
For I leave no footprints
On the sands of time

I only witness
And trust in my own source
Like all rivers do,
Running the course
Bleeding in deeper
To reach the lowest ground

I've no fear of losing
What you see is not mine
For I leave no footprints
On the sands of time

Out from the mountain,
Reaching the ocean
Know that you'll meet me
From all directions
As the final curtain
Falls before your eyes
