"Unspoken"

Visit "Unspoken" on MotoLyrics.com

There's nothing to do (there's nothing to do)
There's only to be (there's only to be)
There's nothing to show (there's nothing to show)
There's only to see (there's only)

Now here, nowhere,
The truth is unspoken!

You are alone (you are alone)
Got something to lose (got something to lose)
You are alone (you are alone)
Got something to prove (got something)

Now here, nowhere,
The truth is unspoken!

There's nothing to do (there's nothing to do)
There's only to be (there's only to be)
There's nothing to lose (there's nothing to lose)
There's only to feel (only to feel)

All one, alone,
The truth is unspoken!
