Drove a hundred miles just to see you dance
And to hear the sweet music you play
You got diamonds in your hair
And bells on your ankle
And a green dragon on the stage
I don't know what you do
But whatever it is
You got me hooked on your line all the way
And your friend Charlie, he's so lucky
He gets to see you everyday

It would make me high - to have you
It would make me high - to have you

I don't know about what to do about
The way that you move
And I'm beginning to fantasize
I wanna take you home want to talk to you
I want to rock you to sleep tonight
It's time for you to go
But I'm beggin' you please
Comma, Comma give me some more
Gimme a chance and I'll make you happy
That's what I came here for
It would make me high - to have you
