Everybodys watching you for signs
Hope you can confuse them with your mind
Everybodys watching you for secrecy
Where you running to selfishly
A careless interview
Summer can burn out in the stream,
Holding back, diving after me.
You can't share.

Everybody thinks you're on your way
Hope you can keep prying eyes away
Everybody thinks of you with secrecy
Where you running to selfishly
A careless interview
Summer can burn out in the stream,
Holding back, diving after me.
You can't share.
You no you can't share

Everybody thinks you're on your way
Hope you can keep prying eyes away
Everybody thinks of you with secrecy
Where you running to selfishly
A careless interview
Summer can burn out in the stream,
Holding back, diving after me.
You can't share.
You no you can't share

No you no you can't share
