Yeah I'm gonna wait
Lord i'm gonna wait
Oh Lord
Wake up wake up and feel your body
Forget how you feel from last night's party

Shine shine shine
Taste the pain no more
Wake wake wake
Yeah you're living like never before

Here is your chance
Do anything don't let it fade away
I will be watching you

Please do it right this time
You've got all the help you need
Try not to read the signs
They were never there

Wait till they see my new sunday
Wait till they see my new sunday
Wait till they see
wait till they see my new sun

Right now I'm lost
Sleeping without a care
But soon things are changing
Never even knew I was there
It starts from above
Way before you rise
Like he's a pushing
Pushing to realise that

You take the hard road
Tripping every two steps you take
But I want the high road
Running from my last mistake

Wait till they see my new sunday
Wait till they see my new sunday

Wait till they see
wait till they see my new sun

I'm gonna wait for the sunday sun to come up
I'm gonna wait till it's noon before I get up
I'm gonna pull the white sheets from my face
Let the sunshine take my place

I'm gonna wait
Yeah I'm gonna wait
Lord I'm gonna wait
For my new sunday

I'm gonna wait for the sunday sun to come up
I'm gonna wait till it's noon before I get up
I'm gonna pull the white sheets from my face

I'm gonna wait
Lord I'm gonna wait
Lord I'm gonna wait
For my new Sunday
