I am stuck up a lush cook a everyday crappy ecsuse I'm not rich not ranger Rick but I still love you but then my heart stops to say hey I love you but when we kiss my head falls into an abyss I cry I sob but nothing working all I feel is embarrassment I can't connect my passion with you you you oh you because I am not real a fake maybe out there a big crucify now I think I'd rather die but the end is nowhere near(guitar solo) so tonight think about it and never ever have a thought to dought it because it's pure pure embarrassment
