Hush now, and listen

We've got to do something

Before all we are is a skeleton crew

There's got to be something someone can do

And all I can think of is you

You and I it seems we have a bond

Since I cannot fly

It's you who must wander

Little sailor of the skies

You must be my eyes

Is there land that lies beyond

For the children of Eden

God's fragile creatures

We see now we're all of us

In the same boat

And the years of not heeding

The signs and the teachers

Leave us here wondering

Will we flounder or float

May this not prove the ending

But one final warning

To tell us we've come to
The end of our rope
Oh, sweet child of Eden
Find us a morning
The one thing we can't live without
Fly and find us hope
Bring back hope
From beyond
Children of Eden
Cry for salvation
Fly far as wings can fly
Bring hope
