I'm torn and all washed out
Wrecked beyond all doubt
You drained my faith and lust
You strongly test my trust

But this will just gain me
Oh, just you wait and see
Now see me walk away
I might return some day

Refrain:

I won't stand abuse
I'm leaving you behind
And you will loose
Spare me your excuse
I'm leaving you behind
And you will loose

You think you have control
But you can't lead my soul
This came as a surprise
I saw right through your lies

The rules will change from now
I'm in charge and tells you how
Your allies left and ran
Now catch me if you can

Refrain:

I won't stand abuse
I'm leaving you behind
And you will loose
Spare me your excuse
I'm leaving you behind
And you will loose
