There is a bright light shining over my head
Like I'm an angel sent from heaven
Know time to think what your doing
Know time to stop what your thinking
But the plain message I'm trying to Get across

No one can tell you who you really are
Just think to yourself they
Gotta go
They think they know what there talking about
But you know, that there In there own

Who you are to me is just special
Believe that you can do anything
Just believe in yourself
You know you can
Believe
Just believe

Times flying past it's ticking fastly
Hope is at the end of the road
Know time to say what your writing
Know time to draw what your saying
But the plain message I'm trying to get across

No one can tell you who you really are
Just think to yourself they
Gotta go
They think they know what there talking about
But you know, that there In there own

Who you are to me is just special
Believe that you can do anything
Just believe in yourself
You know you can
Believe
Just believe

The worlds spinning so fastly
I can hardly catch my breathe
Know time to look what your breathing

Know time to see the sunset

Who you are to me is just special
Believe that you can do anything

You see I believed
Believe that can fly
And if anyone doubts you don't cry
Just think to yourself
You know your worth it
Don't listen to anyone else
Because at the end of the day
You believed in yourself

Who you are to me is just special
Believe that you can do anything
Just believe in yourself
You know you can
Believe
Just believe
