Take a journey in your mind with me
To the ocean voyage of 1493
This distance is just a shift
As we smash the wall and test the laws of gravity
I may not know what these waters may bring
But someday I know I'll go down in history

Calling all the warriors and soldiers
We're all humans we know who we are
I send this message from the star I sit under and wonder
When I'm gone
Will this world carry on

No land ahead for a thousand miles or more
There will be no stopping
Even if were starving
Your overboard
Twenty three knots make history in 1493 yeah

Calling all the warriors and soldiers
We're all humans we know who we are
I send this message from the star I sit under and wonder
When I'm gone
Will this world carry on

And then a leader comes along
With the force of all as one
And finally sees the truth
That the future lies in you

Light me up with that vibe and I'll never stop
Never stop babe

Light me up with that vibe and I'll never stop
Never stop babe

Light me up with that vibe and I'll never stop
Never stop babe

Light me up with that vibe and I'll never stop

Never stop babe

Never never never
