We hold on and stay up all night
Strayed a little far from the beaten path
I saw my reason lifting off the ground
And I heard you whisper I'm gone

No time to question the values or reasons why
I'm just not living the wild life

I wish I wish I could stay here stay here for days
Got a lot on your plate got to get on my way
I picture a conscious feeling
Better than high

I'm just not living the wild life

And if I learn to sleep
I will learn to tell time
And when I tell time
I sleep all the while

When I sleep
I might hope to survive
The losing of you
In the midst of the wild life
