Oh I need some time to make sense of something
I lost along on the ride
Thought I was fine
When she speaks she's like a mime
It's hard to read her simple mind
Turns me inside out in a way I can't define

Oh I need somebody who won't see through me
Was happy living a lie
Thought I was fine
Then it breaks without a sign
It's hard to read her simple mind
Leaves me looking back for a thing I'll never find

It's a long way to fall
When you find out how it never was
It's a long way to fall
When you find out it never happened at all

When she speaks she's like a mime
It's hard to read her simple mind
Got me looking back for a thing I'll never find

It's a long way to fall
When you find out how it never was
It's a long way to fall
When you find out how it really was
It's a long way to fall
When you find out it never happened at all
