

Perpetual Dream Theory "When Worlds Collide"

Visit "When Worlds Collide" on MotoLyrics.com

if the world gets any smaller never see the inner parting sweet sorrow if the pulse gets any fainter like being in pictures when worlds collide

in the shape of a weeping willow tree
your spirit leaving me

if the sound gets any paler the party is over, another false start if the rise gets any steeper hang out in the air and shout me your grief
in the shape of

to make this a logical end to every screenplay that you've ever read
and cast your defeat in a typical light
i'm not leaving you tonight
