You know she don't love me no more
Her sister does and it shows
Well, she got a look in her eye like she might even cry
She's kind
I told her don't you touch me
And man, she wouldn't pay me no mind
I told her don't you touch me
She wouldn't pay me no mind

Well I told you once I'll tell you again
All I need is a friend
Yeah but if you can't say goodbye
I guess I could try
Loving you
Hook, line and sinker
I'll bite if you can teach me to be true
Yeah, hook, line and sinker
I'll bite if you can teach me to be true
