Last night when the moon was bright you called me
darlin
And you whispered pretty little love words in my ear
Was it just moon-talk, only moon-talk
Or did those pretty little love words mean you're sincere? (sincere!)
Did those pretty little love words mean you're sincere? (sincere!)

Last night when the moon was bright you said I love you!
And you painted pretty little castles in the air
Was it just moon-talk, only moon-talk
Or did those pretty little castles mean you really care? (care!)
Did those pretty little castles mean you really care? (care!)

I know that I . . . meant every sigh
When you hugged me the way you hugged me
An you kissed me the way you kissed me
In the moonlight! (hubba hubba hubba hubba!)

Last night when you held me tight and called me darlin
And you told me that you would die if we should part
Was it just moon-talk, only moon-talk
Or did those pretty little love words come from your heart? (heart!)
Did those pretty little love words come from your heart?
(pretty little love words come from your heart!)

Hmmm . . . moon-talk! . . . hmmm . . . moon-talk! . . .
Makes you hug me the way you hugged me
Makes you kiss me the way you kissed me
In the moonlight! (I love ya, love ya, love ya, love ya!)

Last night when you held me tight and called me darlin
And you told me that you would die if we should part
Was it just moon-talk, only moon-talk
Or did those pretty little love words come from your
heart? (heart!)

Did those pretty little love words come from your heart?
(pretty little love words come from your heart!)

Moon talk, oh moon talk!
