[Self Jupiter]

(Spoken)

Beauty was like a claw

Whatever it was about her snatched me up in the night

Maybe it was just her kind gestures and the golden supplements of her textures

The extras and affection

She was a star in my eyes, galaxies away we..

Separated with sections

This is your side of the world and this is mine, I said

She agreed as if with no hesitation

But remembering them evenings we shared, together

In her walls my water-colored painted inspiration in an old, cold December weather

She always be amongst the best pieces of work in my

art gallery forever

Tried and true, my pride and joy bride who I despised

Surprise

Birthday cake candles display not only her age but her flaws

22 dancing flames flicker on wax, as our love affair has all

[Abstract Rude]

(Sang)

They come, they come, they go

They come, they come, they go

(Spoken)

It wasn't perfect, but we were working it out

What was love, but an uncanny emotion to feel uncertain about

Hurt, by her mouth

Sticks and stones were child's play, compared to the foul things she would say

The way a woman can get under a man's skin is first tantalizing then agonizing

Stressful, she could be no less

Scattered thoughts of our battered love to its bloody

Pulp Fiction was Tarantino-esque

Ghetto Juliette

We were so impetuous, when we first met
You were big eyes in a big city
By the time LA's done with you you gonna have contacts for eyes and fake titties
I'm just playin' really, hehe
Messin' wit' you (Messin' wit' you)
Her compulsive obsessive
When I left town, left her restless
She fought through lonely days
Then thought of her only ways to punish me
She became a free-for-all with our relationship freefall, plummeting
How vindictive I thought
I'ma miss you a lot

[Abstract Rude]

(Sang)

They come, they come, they go
They come, they come, they go

[Mikah 9]

(Spoken)

So wherever so where was loins within her folds, cursed life

Love only rescue

Antimatter vortex

Busom event horizon toughs pubic follicles

Miniscule stakes count burnt-out soulmates

Dimensions collide sex

Becoming bow to respect game and escalated a war of the hearts

I have final triumph, but we both lost our minds

Begin again accept heartbroken proposals

Got dogged now we lick each other's wounds

Apartment living room we hold hands

Close our eyes and one leaping bound jump over vacuum cleaner

Love is in all women

I apologize for all men

Compatibility and commitment I wipe the tears from your eyes

You pull the wool over mine

I offer food for thought

You choose, spat out

I walk with God, you are the seductress
