"Door Of Dreams"

Visit "Door Of Dreams" on MotoLyrics.com

There's a door of dreams that only lovers know through that door of dreams, just those in love may go every moment I love you more and more it seems say you'll walk with me through the door of dreams!

We don't need a "lover's moon" in the sky or the fragrance of a rose in July or the magic of a star standing by, above you if you'll only say "I love you!"

There's a door of dreams that only lovers know
through that door of dreams, just those in love may go
every moment I love you more and more it seems
say you'll walk with me through the door of dreams!
There's a door of dreams that only lovers know
through that door of dreams, just those in love may go
every moment I love you more and more it seems
say you'll walk with me through the door of dreams!

Come my love with me,
through the door of dreams!
