Love, makes lovely out of lonely
Love, with someone and only
Time, time to take, time to share
All that's hiding there, behind your heart
As you start livin' for, a brighter, surer

Love, to wrap around a romance
Love, the dance of the slow dance
One , one and one making more
Than any one before
By knowin' you're in love

No more, waking up to no one there
No more, handing out hands of solitaire
And no more, New Year's Eve with the evening news
No more blues, no more blues

Love, love that speaks with a smile
Knowing all the while, we wanna cry
But you try smiling deeper, just to keep a

Love, that writer's write their songs for Love, that poetry longs for you, and you alone
Make my loneliness unknown
An' so you own, my love
