Take care when you say "Te Quiero"
Your lips may impart sweeter things than your heart means to say . . .

Take care when you say "Te Quiero"
Don't whisper tonight
words that fade in the light of the day . . .

Who knows if the spell that we're under will still be as strong when the moon is no longer there?

A heart that swayed in a moment such as this may be betrayed
by the madness of a kiss
when you say "Te Quiero" . . .
take care!
