Take me back... back to where you got Me from... or better yet take me back to Where you stole me from, ooo, I need
To get back to my brothers!

Now what if I told you that the wolves
Are my brothers of course you think that
I'm crazy, when I'm not cuz what
What I said is true, they are my brothers
And we love and protect each other!

I love them and I protect them just like
They do for me, we cry when we are Hurt but at least we are there for each
Other

Now if there's one thing I could never Get enough of is to be with my four-legged
Wild brothers, the wolves are the best and they Are never the pest!

Now what if I told you that the wolves
Are my brothers of course you think that
I'm crazy, when I'm not cuz what
What I said is true, they are my brothers
And we love and protect each other!

We come together as a pack
We don't lack the game we each
Carry our own strength and ability
To fight with all our might

The wolves are my brothers oh yes they Are... and I love them so much, is

There such a thing as friendly bonds and Family ties, truth to all the lies?

Now what if I told you that the wolves
Are my brothers of course you think that
I'm crazy, when I'm not cuz what
What I said is true, they are my brothers

And we love and protect each other!

Now to you I may be crazy!
I ain't no lunatic cuz these wolves
Are my brothers and they will never turn
On me, nor will I turn on them cuz
They are the best not the pest

Yeah they are never the pest but yet
We treat them like second hand slaves
As we dig their graves it's like they don't Even exist when there is the truth to all the denied lies
We tell them every thing is going to be okay but all we serve are empty words that always taste the same

Now what if I told you that the wolves
Are my brothers of course you think that
I'm crazy, when I'm not cuz what
What I said is true, they are my brothers
And we love and protect each other cuz
They are the best never the pest!
