Chris Martin (Martin Martin)

[Verse 1]

Say she gonna change me, and turn me

Into something that her friend would like

Say she gonna curve me she mussi crazy

Cah from you curve you cah straight

And dat nuh right

Girl you don't deserve me, baby!

You got me thinking twice bout you being my wife

Now it's the beginning of the ending

Start of a new chapter in my life

[Pre-chorus]

Cuz I gave you everything I've got

But now the table's turn

Another girl will be everything you're not

That is not your concern

I gave you everything I've got

But you read me wrong

Now another girl is standing in your spot

[Chorus]

Singing this song girl

You gave up the chance

For our love to advance

No second dance

Nooo

You gave up the chance

For our love to advance

No second dance

Nooo

[Verse 2]

See me with a new girl

She's thinking of ways she can win back my heart

Now I got her stressing, she's drinking
Regretting that she played that part
Yeah I got her kneeling, pleading
Begging for a brand new start
Girl if you had listened to me
Our love would never fall apart

[Pre-chorus]

Cuz I gave you everything I've got
But now the table's turn
Another girl will be everything you're not
That is not your concern
I gave you everything I've got
But you read me wrong
Now another girl is standing in your spot

[Chorus]

Singing this song girl

You gave up the chance
For our love to advance
No second dance
Nooo

You gave up the chance
For our love to advance
No second dance
Nooo
