Hey Listen!

Behind the rattle and rumble of diesel fumes

Hey Listen!

Beneath the concrete auto-roadbed tombs

Every thing is saying something

Can you hear it too?

Hey Listen!

Hey Listen!

There's a rhythm in the silence between the words I

Speak

Hey Listen!

The gravel makes small thunder 'neath your feet

Every thing screaming something

Can you hear the call?

Then you're waking from a dream in the middle of the Night

Hearing whispers in the darkness and you bolt upright

Cause you think you hear a message and you're not

Really sure if it's true

What do they say to you?

What do they say to you?

Your secret Voice is coming through

Hey Listen!

Behind the streetlight smiles the silent moon

Hey Listen!

Behind the sirens swallows cry at noon

Everything is singing something, can you hear the tune?

Then you're waking from a dream in the middle of the Night

Hearing whispers in the darkness and you bolt upright

Cause you think you hear a message and you're not

Really sure if it's true

What do they say to you?

What do they say to you?

Your secret Voice is coming through...

What do they say to you?...
