"Hard To Tell You"

I'm feeling like a bona fide jerk
And it's hard to tell you
I've been watching you walking to work
And it's hard to tell you
It's hard to tell you how I feel

I want to tell you but I can't quite
I'd love to kiss you and hold you tight

I'm maybe a little bit mad
And it's hard to tell you
When I'm with you babe it makes me feel glad
And it's hard to tell you
It's hard to tell you how I feel

I want to tell you but I can't quite
I'd love to kiss you and hold you tight

I really hope that you feel the same way
And it's hard to tell me
Break the silence babe, break it to say
That it's hard to tell me
It's hard to tell me how you feel

I want to tell you but I can't quite
I'd love to kiss you and hold you tight
