[Son:]

Set me free I need to go
Where is he? You have to show
The mystery of whirling time
The meaning of his secret life

[The Guardian:]

First we have to get the key
That brings you back to reality
Without this you can't return
Without this you have to turn back

The night is falling down
I think it's time to leave

Somewhere in the timeless space
He's suffering closed in a horrid place
Save him now from the eternal pain
I can't wait to see him again

[Son:]

I left behind my prison cell
Midnight comes I hear the bell
Cold wind blows into my face
I stay in the shadow, I won't leave a trace

This Guardian, my father's friend
Is the only one who understands
That I believe in his innocence
And I will get the evidence

When night is falling down
The Hall of Doom waits for me

Somewhere in the timeless space
He's suffering closed in a horrid place
I'll free him from the eternal pain
I can make it and I'm not afraid

The Gate is waiting
For me to get in
The Gate is waiting

I'm gonna get in

This is now the moment of truth
I walk through the Gate
The Eye of Time opens before me
I reached the point of no return
That's the way of fate
Where does it end? Nobody can foresee

[Aurelius:]

You have to know what really happened...

After a long, long research,
The First One found the way to Use the power of the Gate.
I tried to keep him away
But he went back in time...
He made a massive chaos and that's Why your mother died.
I tried to save her and make everything right.
But I had to realize there was nothing I could do.
When I came back, his followers
Were already waiting for me.
I couldn't tell the truth anyone,
They brought me here and left me
To suffer 'till the end of time...

[Son:]

Follow me, I know the way
That leads us out of here
We can break the power of frozen time
I'll be there to prove you're right
You can count on me
Tell the council what the First had done

There's nothing to fear of now
Though the evil First escaped somehow
Across the Gate he ran away
He realized that he have to pay

My father's honor has been restored
The First One's place was his reward
I stay with him as his right-hand man
It's a dream come true I will be one of them

The sun is rising again
A new beginning has come

[Aurelius:]

I forget my mourning and grief
In God we trust, in the future I believe

I broke free of the frozen time
I'm not alone and I won't be anymore
