"If I Wasn't Me?"

I don't know why,
Why I even try
The hours turn to days,
They just keep on rolling by Now it doesn't really look like it's ever gonna change at all

You're so kind,
But at times you seem so cruel
Maybe I was blind,
You're an exception to the rule Tell me why I waste my time by the phone waiting for your call

And I know that I'm not any better
When I see her
I've got to get her
I couldn't blame her
if I thought she knew
About all the bad things that I do

Would I wanna be around me if I wasn't me?

All I want is to have a laugh or two Tell me why,
Why it shouldn't be with you Well I guess that there are times when it's not a joke after all

So maybe I was wrong,
I didn't care about being right
We only live so long,
Why not embrace each day and night Well at least that's what I thought and it's possible that I still do

And I know that I'm not any better
When I see her I've got to get her

I couldn't blame her if I thought she knew
About all the bad things that I do

Would I wanna be around me
if I wasn't me?

Well maybe it's my,
my own double standard I look for the best but I act like the worst I know I'm not the first I'm not the only one who acts like this

I don't know why,
Why you would even try Can't you see, That you're just not right for me But maybe there's a chance that it's gonna change after all

And I know that I'm not any better

Would I wanna be around me
if I wasn't me?
