My life (My Life)

Just living my life

My life (My Life)

Just living my life, my life

know that's why I'm living my life (My Life)

Just living my life

My life (My Life)

Just living my life (my life)

know that's why I'm living my life

Chuck DZul (verse 1):

Reminiscing bout the past and a n*99a getting older
And my arms are getting heavy and I can't even lift this boulder

Off of my shoulders mane, and a n*99a still pressin Living thru hard times instead of counting my blessings

This is the gutta gospel and I'm preaching thru this rap game

And I'm painting you a picture, you don't need no frame, just you brain

Mary Jane, she keep me cool and chill when I ride
And help me fight all the pain and misery inside

Tell me have you sat up and wondered high

If there's heaven for a G, if so, when will you die

Man it's hard in these streets, I wish you would've had yo heat

Even thought you not here wit me I put your soul upon this beat

Making moves everyday dawg you gotta watch your back

I put the burner to yo chest cause it's feelings that I lack

Tell me is it hard for you, cause I know it's hard for me

For me to go to sleep and don't think about my G
