Caught in a web of nothingness
Body cold and mind turns numb
I have no memory of this place
I don't know where I am
Dim flashbacks of earthly life
Entering these halls
Here is no turning back
Crucified in the void

(Chorus:)
Disturbing images
Visions so scary
Screams of endless pain
They come from me
Judged and mutilated
Feeding the blue flame
Injected with horrors
They are coming for me

The darkness overwhelming
Pain beyond pain
Time is standing still
Yet centuries unfold
Played the greatest game of all
Won at all expenses
Rewarded with these hellish visions
In black burning shadows forever to dwell
